LOCAL GIRL WINS IN ANGUS SHOW

Wendy Lynn MacIntosh is pictured above with black Angus heifer that was shown by Wendy July 21, 1975 at the Virginia Angus Association Breeders Show held in Culpeper. She won a silver cup and blue ribbon for showmanship, and did well showing her second heifer.

Wendy will enter her next show in West Virginia on August 15 and looks forward to the Five-County Fair the 8th of September and to the State Fair the 18th of September where she will be competing once again.

Wendy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill MacIntosh of Route 1, Spout Spring. Mr. and Mrs. MacIntosh have two daughters and a son, all showing two heifers each.

Sherwill 4-H Club's Educational Tour

Tuesday afternoon, July 22, the members of Sherwill 4-H Club and their families had their Annual Educational Tour. They visited The Lynchburg News Office, Bear and Son Tombstone Business on Route 29 South and the Central Virginia Community College.

After the tour the group had a picnic supper in the recreation area of the College. The weather was nice and they enjoyed basket ball and other games.

Janet Coleman gave devotions and Sylvia Carson presided over the business meeting.

Joy Johnston who has just recently moved to Concord joined the group. Some were at Senior 4-H Camp at Holiday Lake and could not be present.

They were Susan Robinson and Curt Stone, Amy Roberts and Teresa Roberts and their families joined in the tour and picnic supper. They have worked this club year under the leadership of Sylvia Carson, a senior member. Sylvia was tapped a Virginia 4-H All Star while at State 4-H Congress this year. She also won a trip to Chicago to be in November on her Health in a hammer mill Saturday. He had to stay in hospital over night. He is suffering a lot with it.

Mr. Irby Jones spent several days with his grandparents, the Wheelers, last week and Richard Jones is visiting them this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Bradford spent a week in Madison, Wisconsin, with their daughter, Mrs. Holder and came home Friday by plane.

Mr. Osborne Davidson had a setback last Tuesday but was back to par on Sunday, Mrs. Horsley is still sick at Guggenheimer Nursing Home.

Come to Revival at Hebron and hear our good preacher who is helping.

Mrs. Dancey McCraw and Jon are home after a visit to her mother in Tennessee.

Mr. and Mrs. Weldman of Newark, Delaware are visiting her mother, Mrs. Elsie Thornhill, Achievement Record. We have just learned that James Hancock, III has won a trip to Michigan to a recreational camp August 2 to August 17 on his Achievement Record on Leadership.

Plans were made for the next meeting to be Sunday, Sept. 14 at Holiday Lake (Public Side). This, too, is a time for the members' families to attend and have a picnic supper. Supper is to be at 6:30 p. m. with a Vesper Service and a program of general interest to follow. Any family especially interested in this club may join in for the entire event. Just bring food according to the number in your group. We are hopeful that some of the Extension Service can be with us as it is an excellent time to get acquainted.

SPRING CREEK CHURCH TO CELEBRATE 160th ANNIVERSARY

Spring Creek Baptist Church in Darlington Heights will celebrate its One Hundred Sixtieth Anniversary on Sunday, August 3, 1975.

Services will begin at 10 a.m. and continue until noon.

Dr. Frank G. Voight, Director of Division of Church programs, Virginia Baptist General Board, will be guest speaker for the services.

Herbert C. Bradshaw, writer of Sunday School lessons that are often printed in newspapers, will give the history of the church.

The Rev. N. T. Brummitt, past pastor, and Rev. Carroll Welch will participate on the program during the day.

Following the services, lunch will be served on the grounds. The public is invited to attend and to bring a picnic basket.

CVPDC ADOPTS HOUSING POLICIES PLAN

On February 27, 1975, the Central Virginia Planning District Commission officially accepted the Housing report entitled "Housing Policies Plan for Central Virginia: Addendum", adopting the goals, objectives and strategies included in the "Housing Policies Plan", as revised by the "Addendum".

With its adoption by the Commission, the plan has become only the official Plan of the Commission. The next step in the process is for the individual jurisdictions in the Planning District to review it. When a majority of the jurisdictions within the Central Virginia Planning District concur in the Plan, it will become the official Plan of the District.

VIRGINIA:
In the Circuit Court of Appomattox County.
IN THE MATTER OF: Last will and testament of Hattie Woolridge, deceased.
TO: Unknown parties, being heirs at law of Hattie Woolridge, deceased.
ORDER OF PUBLICATION

The object of this suit is to determine whether the paper writing, dated December 22, 1968, is or is not the true last will and testament of the said Hattie Woolridge, who died March 25, 1975, in Appomattox County, Virginia, and if so, to admit said paper writing to probate as the last will and testament of Hattie Woolridge.

An affidavit having been made and filed that there may be parties interested for or against the establishment of said last will and testament and whose names and addresses are unknown to the affiant, it is ORDERED that they appear before the Circuit Court of Appomattox County on August 27, 1975, at 10:00 A.M., to do what is necessary to protect their interests in this suit.

It is further ORDERED that the foregoing order be published for once a week for four (4) successive weeks in the Times-Virginian, a newspaper published and having general circulation in Appomattox County.

In Memorium

In loving memory of my husband, Mr. Samuel D. Womack, who died one year ago, August 2, 1974.

A heart of gold stopped beating,
Two shining eyes at rest.
God broke my heart to prove
He only takes the best.
God knows you had to leave me,
But you did not go alone,
For part of me went with you.
The day He took you home.
To some you are forgotten.
To others just a part of the past.
But to me who loved and lost you,
Your memory will always last.
Loving wife,
Grace M. Womack
